Explanatory notes

1) The application is submitted separately for each tax year.

Information

1) The application concerns only standard tax-deductible expenses, that is, PLN 250. In other words, the place of residence of the employee and the work establishment are located in the same town.

2) The payer charges tax advance payments without applying expenses at the latest from the month following the month he received the application.

3) In case of a data change, the employee is obliged to submit the PIT-2 declaration.

4) The application is essential for the second employment contract and the following employment contracts in order to eliminate the tax surcharge in the annual tax return.
